Francis Asberry Baugh
b. 1833
d. Late 1860's

He was listed on the tax roll of 1855 in Coryell County; Was elected Sheriff on August 6, 1860, and served until March 2, 1861, when he resigned to join the Confederate Army. On March 2, 1861, Sheriff F. A. Baugh resigned to join the Confederate Army. Jesse Harris was appointed sheriff to replace him. On June 4, 1861, Harris and Burl Roberts, a nephew of Sheriff Baugh, became involved in a quarrel. When Harris wounded Roberts superficially trying to arrest him, a young school teacher named Anderson shot Harris with a shotgun. Harris died two days later on June 6. Anderson fled the county and was never apprehended. Harris was the first lawman in the county to be killed in the line of duty. Recorded history notes Frank Baugh, former sheriff of Brown County, was killed in a gun fight at Byrd's Store during the late 1860's. Family tradition recalls Frank caught his partner cheating during a card game at Byrd's Store. Frank accused the man of cheating. Tempers flaired, and the partner beat Frank to the draw.
